Internet Safety for Parents

90% of parents report that they are concerned that their kids share too much online, while nearly 80% of teens report that they either have no parental rules about Internet use or find ways around the rules.

Specific Objectives include:

- * Understand how our children are using and communicating on the Internet;
- * Equip ourselves with the tools and skills necessary to better understand dangers on the net;
- * Gain the knowledge needed to better understand and protect children online;
- * Learn ideas and strategies to open up a safe discussion with children and reinforce what you learned, without causing fear;
- * Gain strategies to protect children on social networking sites.

Course Topics include:

- * Various dangers on the Internet, including Internet Predators, Porn, etc.;
- * Case Examples;
- * How children get in trouble on the net and how to avoid the pitfalls;
- * How to help children understand the importance of, and control their personal information on the Internet;
- * Social networking and privacy settings;
- * Understand some of the most popular shorthand and lingo used in communications, such as texting;
- * How to use wireless devices safely.

It's not enough to just be concerned, learn what you can do to help your kids and keep your sanity in the process!
